

LITE-UP Texas Program

could help pay your electric bill

The LITE-UP TEXAS program is designed to help qualified low-income individuals reduce the monthly cost of electric service. The program will provide discounts to eligible customers in the following months:

- July, August, September and October 2007 billings, for June, July, August and September 2007;
- June, July, August, September and October 2008 billings, for May, June, July, August and September 2008; and
- June, July, August, and September 2009 billings, for May, June, July and August 2009.

An electric customer is qualified:

If the customer is currently receiving: Medicaid, Food stamps, Medicaid - Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Medicaid - Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), or Medicaid - QMB. If you are not in one of the qualified programs listed above, you can still qualify in the program if your household income is at or below 125 percent of the federal poverty guidelines.

If you are not a participant in the above qualified programs but think you qualify based on household income (see chart below) you can self-enroll by calling toll-free 1-800-241-7011 and request an application or by printing an application from Northwest Assistance Ministries' website, www.namonline.org (see Shelter and Energy Assistance Program), or the Public Utility Commission website, <http://www.puc.state.tx.us/ocp/assist/liteup/index.cfm>.
